In this book

The Reading Eggspress Comprehension programme shows pupils how to understand the literal meaning of a text, including its vocabulary, and its inferred meaning. This workbook has 20 step-by-step lessons that teach key strategies for children to use when they read. Each lesson uses a levelled extract and focuses on a single comprehension strategy. They support teaching of the following statutory requirements of the National Curriculum in England:

Reading – Comprehension

Pupils should be taught to:

- develop positive attitudes to reading, and an understanding of what they read, by:
 - listening to and discussing a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or textbooks
 - reading books that are structured in different ways and reading for a range of purposes
 - increasing their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends, and retelling some of these orally
 - identifying themes and conventions in a wide range of books
 - discussing words and phrases that capture the reader's interest and imagination
 - recognising some different forms of poetry [for example, free verse, narrative poetry]
- understand what they read, in books they can read independently, by:
 - checking that the text makes sense to them, discussing their understanding, and explaining the meaning of words in context
 - asking questions to improve their understanding of a text
 - drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence
 - predicting what might happen from details stated and implied
 - identifying main ideas drawn from more than 1 paragraph and summarising these
 - identifying how language, structure, and presentation contribute to meaning
 - retrieve and record information from non-fiction

Making predictions

FICTION

We can predict what is going to happen in a text based on clues in the words and pictures, and on what we already know.

Read the passage.

The Goats

Lots of children heard about the goats and came to visit. Morecambe and Wise put their heads down and butted them in all directions.

The children thought it was great fun—that is, the ones that got away did. The children who didn't escape went home crying and told their mothers.

Mr Kent smiled when he saw what was happening. "These goats are as good as a watchdog," he said. "This'll put a stop to whoever is nicking our strawberries."

Mr Kent wasn't so happy the next day. He was at the pond. He leaned forward, then called excitedly to Mrs Kent, "We've got some baby newts! Hurray!"

Highlight how Mr Kent was standing when he looked at the newts.

Colour why Mr Kent was excited.

Circle what the goats did to the children.

Underline why Mr Kent was pleased with the goats.

Put a box around where Mr Kent was when he saw the newts.

Circle the correct answers.

- 1 What three predictions can you make about what will happen next in the story?
 - a One of the goats will butt Mr Kent.
 - b Mr Kent will push the goats into the pond.
 - c Mr Kent will be angry.
 - d Mrs Kent will push Mr Kent into the pond.
 - e Mr Kent will get wet.
 - f The goats will eat the baby newts
- 2 What evidence is there in the text to support your predictions? Select two answers.
 - a Mr Kent was excited about the newts.
 - b Some of the children got away from the goats.
 - c The goats have shown that they like to butt people.
 - d Someone had been stealing the Kents' strawberries.
 - e The children didn't like it when the goats butted them.
 - f Mr Kent was in the right position to get butted.

Read the passage.

Circle how Mrs Kent felt when she saw that the children were missing.

Put a box around what Wise did to Mrs Kent.

When Mrs Kent went in to wake the children, she was terribly shocked.

"The children aren't here!" she cried to Mr Kent. "Where could they be?"

Mr and Mrs Kent looked everywhere. They looked inside the house and outside the house.

Morecambe started butting his head against Mr Kent as he searched near the shed.

Wise started pushing against Mrs Kent while she peered under the car.

"The goats are trying to tell us something," said Mr Kent.

"Let's untie them and see what they do," replied Mrs Kent.

Highlight what Morecambe did to Mr Kent.

Underline what Mr Kent said to Mrs Kent.

3 What do you think the goats are going to do after Mr and Mrs Kent untie them?

4 What evidence is there in the text that helped you make your prediction?

Alliteration repeats consonant sounds. Onomatopoeia imitates sounds. Simile compares one thing to another using the words 'like' or 'as'. Metaphor also makes comparisons but without using 'like' or 'as'

Read the passage.

Circle the animal that Great Grandpa compares Great Grandma to.

Getting rid of wrinkles

"You look like a hippopotamus that has been bathing in the river too long," he said at breakfast.

"The bags under your eyes could carry the treasure from a sunken pirate ship," he said at lunch.

Highlight the metaphor in paragraph 3.

Circle the correct answers.

- What is Great Grandma Em's face compared to?
a a sheet
b a hippopotamus
c a newspaper
d a sheet of scrunched up newspaper
- The figure of speech in paragraph 1 is a simile. Which word tells us this?
a a b like c of d sheet
- What does the simile in paragraph 1 suggest about Great Grandma Em's face?
Her face is ...
a very thin.
b quite hard.
c full of wrinkles.
d very smooth.
- What does Great Grandpa Alfred compare the bags under Great Grandma's eyes to?
Bags that can carry ...
a pirate treasure.
b pirates.
c ships.
d sunken ships.
- The figure of speech in paragraph 3 is a metaphor. What does it suggest about the bags under Great Grandma's eyes? The bags under her eyes are ...
a colourful.
b valuable.
c large.
d sparkly.

Read the passage.

Underline
three similes in paragraph 1.

Circle the words in paragraph 1
that show that the figures of speech are similes.

By the time the big day arrived, Great Gran's skin was as smooth as whipped cream, her cheeks were as rosy as ripe strawberries, and her eyes were like rich, dark chocolate drops.

"You're as lovely as the day I first saw you running across the field from the Maloney's prize bull," said Great Grandpa as he waltzed her around the living room.

Put a box around two adjectives that describe Great Gran's eyes.

Highlight the adjective that suggests that Great Gran had no wrinkles.

6 Great Gran's skin is compared to whipped cream. What picture of her skin does this create?

7 Great Gran's cheeks are described as being rosy. They are compared to ripe strawberries. Do you think this is a good comparison? Why, or why not?

8 What picture do we get of Great Gran's eyes from the comparison: Her eyes were like rich, dark chocolate drops?

9 Choose one of the similes in paragraph 1 and write it as a metaphor.

Making connections

FICTION

Linking a text to other texts you have read is a great way to build understanding. Look for key words and phrases in the texts to make the connections.

Read the passages.

Tokyo Techno

Anita unfolded a map of Japan.

"It says the capital of Japan is Tokyo. That's where we're going." She read on, "Japan is made up of four main islands and over 3000 little ones." Anita marked Tokyo, on the island of Honshu, with a red spot.

In the corner of the map Jason pointed to a white flag with a red circle in the middle. "That's the Japanese flag," he said. "The word Japan actually means source of the sun."

In each text, circle Japan's capital city.

In each text, colour the island on which the capital city stands.

In each text, underline the number of islands that make up the country of Japan.

In each text, highlight the words that tell what the word Japan means.

Japan is a country in the Pacific Ocean. It consists of four main islands and thousands of smaller ones. The capital city, Tokyo, is on the island of Honshu.

Japan is known as the Land of the Rising Sun. This is because its name means sun origin.

Japan is on the Pacific Ring of Fire. It experiences over 1500 earthquakes every year. In 2011, a huge earthquake and tsunami caused a lot of damage.

Circle the correct answer for each question.

- 1 Which information appears in both texts?
 - a Japan consists of many islands.
 - b The capital city of Japan is Tokyo.
 - c Japan is on the Pacific Ring of Fire.
 - d Tokyo is on the island of Honshu.
 - e Japan often experiences earthquakes.
 - f Four of Japan's islands are bigger than the others.
 - g Japan is known as the Land of the Rising Sun.
 - h The word Japan means where the sun comes from.

Making connections

Read the passages.

Jason looked out the train window. Beyond the rice fields he could see a huge snow-capped mountain. "That mountain looks like an old volcano."

"It is. Japan is full of volcanoes," said Toshi. "That's Mount Fuji, Japan's most famous mountain."

Jason pulled an instant camera out and took a photo. On the bottom he wrote 'Mount Fuji, JAPAN—famous old volcano.'

Underline the words in each text that give the same information about Mount Fuji.

Colour the words in each text that give different information about Mount Fuji.

In each text, highlight the phrases that tell what passengers on the train often do when they pass Mount Fuji.

Mount Fuji is Japan's highest and most famous mountain. It has been worshipped as a sacred mountain for centuries. Mount Fuji is an active volcano. It last erupted in 1708.

A good way to view Mount Fuji is from the train on the trip between Tokyo and Osaka. Tourists can often be seen taking photographs of Mount Fuji from the train windows.

- 2 What do both texts tell us about Mount Fuji?
- _____
- _____
- _____
- 3 What extra information about Mount Fuji do we get if we look at the texts separately?
- _____
- _____
- _____
- 4 Imagine you are planning a trip to Japan. How would these two texts help you decide on the best way to view Mount Fuji?
- _____
- _____
- _____

Main idea and details

FICTION

The main idea or key point is what the text is about. Details support the main idea.

Read the passage.

Circle the word that tells how Tiddalik was feeling.

Highlight the noun that tells what Tiddalik needed.

Tiddalik the Frog

Narrator: Long ago in the Dreaming, Tiddalik the frog woke very thirsty one morning.

Tiddalik: I need water, I need water, I need water ...

Narrator: So Tiddalik drank all the water he could find.

Tiddalik: [gulp] [gulp] [gulp] [gulp]

Narrator: He drank so much that every billabong and creek and every river and stream was emptied.

Put a box around the action verb that tells what Tiddalik did.

Underline the sentence that contains the main idea.

Circle the correct answers.

- 1 What is the main idea or key point of the text?
 - a Tiddalik the frog was very thirsty.
 - b Tiddalik the frog gulped down the water.
 - c Tiddalik the frog lived long ago.
 - d Tiddalik the frog drank all the water.
- 2 Which word best supports the main idea?
 - a water
 - b emptied
 - c drank
 - d thirsty
- 3 Which phrase best supports the main idea?
 - a every billabong and creek and every river and stream
 - b need water
 - c Long ago in the Dreaming
 - d woke very thirsty

Read the passage.

Underline the name of the animal that tried to make Tiddalik laugh.

Highlight the reason Tiddalik started giggling.

Narrator: Suddenly, Nabunum the eel, whose home had dried out because the water had gone, slithered up to Tiddalik.

Nabunum: Time for you to laugh, froggy.

Narrator: Nabunum began to dance, slowly at first, then faster and faster, wriggling into all sorts of shapes, knots and twists. It worked! Tiddalik started giggling.

Kookaburra: I think he's going to burst.

Wombat: Stand back, here comes the water!

Colour what Kookaburra thought was going to happen.

Put a box around the reason Wombat told everyone to stand back.

4 What is the main idea or key point of the text?

5 List three details that support the main idea.

a _____ b _____

c _____

Finding facts and information

FICTION

Some answers are clearly seen in the text. Ask these questions: Who? What? Where? When?

Read the passage.

Circle who lived in the pond.

Underline when the pond dried up.

The Turtle Who Couldn't Stop Talking

Long ago, a turtle lived in a pond with two swans. The turtle loved to talk. After a long drought, the pond dried up. The two swans realised they would have to find another pond.

"Don't leave me!" begged the turtle.

"But you can't fly," said the swans. "How can you come with us?" The turtle pleaded and pleaded. The swans at last came up with an idea.

Put a box around when the events in the story happened.

Highlight the turtle's words.

Circle the correct answer for each question.

- 1 How many creatures lived in the pond?
a one b three c two d four
- 2 When did the pond dry up?
a long after the drought b during the drought
c after the long drought d in the middle of the drought
- 3 Who decided to find another pond?
a the turtle b one of the swans c the fish d both swans
- 4 What did the turtle say?
a "I can't fly!" b "Come with me!"
c "Don't leave me!" d "Please help me!"
- 5 When did the events in the story happen?
a not so long ago b a long time ago
c during the drought d one hundred years ago

Finding facts and information

Read the passage.

Underline what the turtle wanted to say when they flew high.

Highlight what the townspeople shouted.

When they flew high, the turtle wanted to say "Look at the beautiful view!", but he remembered the swans' warning not to say a word.

They passed over a small town. People looked up and shouted, "Look at that silly turtle!"

The turtle wanted to cry out, "Mind your own business," but he again remembered the warning. As they flew on, more villagers spotted them. People began pointing and crying, "Crazy swans! Crazy turtle!"

The turtle couldn't stand it any longer. He yelled out, "Go away foolish people!" But he let go of the stick in his mouth and fell to the ground, landing on his back and cracking his shell into a thousand pieces.

Put a box around the reason the turtle opened his mouth.

Colour what happened when the turtle let go of the stick.

6 What did the turtle want to say when he looked down at the view?

7 Where were they flying when the people shouted, "Look at that silly turtle"?

8 When did the turtle open his mouth?

9 What happened when the turtle opened his mouth?

Point of view

FICTION

To identify a character's point of view, consider how they behave and feel.

Read the passage.

Put a box around the narrator's name.

Feral and Spam

I hate being a twin. I guess it might be OK if you were an identical twin. You could fool other people by pretending you were the other twin. But Sam and I only got the bad bits of being a twin—like having to share our birthday. That was a real drag.

"I'm not having a party with all of his friends there," I yelled.

"Now Fairlie," Mum began in her best 'don't-argue-with-me' voice, "I'm not having two separate birthday parties. I don't see why you make so much fuss about this."

Circle how airle feels about being a twin.

Highlight pronouns that show who is telling the story.

Circle the correct answers.

- 1 From Fairlie's point of view, what is one of the worst things about being a twin?
 - a swapping identities
 - b sharing identities
 - c sharing birthdays
 - d sharing chores
- 2 Which phrase is the best clue to question 1's answer?
 - a having a party
 - b a real drag
 - c Sam and I
 - d the other twin
- 3 From whose point of view is the passage written?
 - a Fairlie's
 - b Sam's
 - c Mum's
 - d a friend's
- 4 Which pronouns helped you answer question 3?
 - a you and your
 - b he and his
 - c I and our
 - d they and them
- 5 Which word shows that Mum thinks Fairlie is overreacting?
 - a separate
 - b parties
 - c birthday
 - d fuss

Read the passage.

Colour what Mum threatened to do.

"Perhaps I should just organise a party for Sam this year," Mum threatened.

"Yeah. Perhaps there should just be a party for Sam," Sam agreed.

"Fine," I said. "Suits me. Sam can have his party this year and I'll have mine next year." Sam didn't look quite so happy with that idea. Mum did though.

"What a wonderful idea, Fairlie," she said.

"Wonderful," Sam said without enthusiasm.

Underline what Mum thought of Fairlie's idea.

Put a box around how Sam said "Wonderful".

6 What did Mum think of Fairlie's idea?

7 How did Sam feel when Mum suggested that this year's party be just for him?

8 How did Sam's feelings change when Fairlie suggested that they take turns in having a party?

9 Which phrase suggests that Sam did not really think that Fairlie's idea was so wonderful?

Cause and effect

FICTION

Writing describes actions and thoughts. Their cause (why they happen) leads to effects (what the results are).

Read the passage.

Highlight the object Toby tripped over.

Underline the reason Toby dug through the sand.

Circle the object that was buried in the sand.

Isabella

Toby climbed down the stairs to the beach. He looked out across the sea as he walked. Suddenly, Toby tripped over something and fell face first into the sand.

Toby stood up and brushed the wet sand from his clothes. He bent down for a closer look at what he had tripped on.

It was a piece of wood. As Toby lifted it, something underneath caught his eye. He dug through the sand and uncovered a bell. Toby lifted the bell and scraped off the barnacles. There was a date carved on its side.

"1892," Toby read.

Colour what was clinging to the bell.

Put a box around the date on the bell.

Circle the correct answers.

- 1 What caused Toby to trip?
a a bell b a broken stair c a hole in the sand d a piece of wood
- 2 What caused Toby to dig through the sand? He ...
a saw something. b felt something. c heard something. d smelt something.

Put a box around the date in the diary.

Highlight who wrote the diary entry.

Colour the reason the lighthouse keeper fell asleep.

Felix Thompson was seated at the table.

Felix stood and looked at Toby. "I'm sorry about before." Then he handed Toby a black book. "This is my great-grandfather's diary. It tells all about the night of 12 October, 1892."

Toby was stunned. He opened the lighthouse keeper's diary and read. "It has been a bad week. Storm, after storm, after storm. I was dead on my feet. Fell asleep on watch. The light must have gone out during the night. I didn't know any damage had been done until the next day. When I heard that The Isabella was missing in my waters, I lied when I filled in the logbook."

Circle what happened to the light that night.

Underline what happened to The Isabella.

6 Why did Felix's great-grandfather fall asleep on the night of 12 October, 1892?

7 What happened as a result of Felix's great-grandfather falling asleep that night?

8 What is the most likely reason that Felix's great-grandfather lied when he filled in the logbook?

Caught in the Act

I couldn't believe it. The runway was a lily pad. We were going too fast. How would he stop in time? The lily pad seemed so small. Suddenly, the dragonfly stopped in midair. He hovered over the lily pad and dropped me. Luckily it was a soft landing.

"Do you have any idea how dangerous that was?" I yelled.

The dragonfly said nothing. He flew off, leaving me alone on the lily pad. A small boat, made from a leaf, pulled up to the side of the lily pad.

Underline how the younger brother was different from his older brother.

Highlight what the younger brother did when he found the injured sparrow.

Two Brothers, Two Rewards

There were once two brothers who were very different from each other. The older brother, though rich, always wanted more. The younger brother was not rich, but he was happy with what he had.

One day the younger brother found a sparrow with a broken wing. He took it home and nursed it back to health. When it was time for the sparrow to fly away, it said, "You showed me great kindness, yet expected nothing in return. Please take this pumpkin seed. Plant it in your garden and wait for it to grow and ripen."

When the pumpkins ripened, they contained gold, silver and diamonds.

Colour the reason the sparrow rewarded the younger brother.

Put a box around the younger brother's reward.

Circle the correct answers.

- What is the most likely reason the younger brother took care of the injured sparrow?
 - He felt sorry for the sparrow.
 - He expected the sparrow to reward him.

 - fly away
 - nursed it
- What is the most likely reason the sparrow rewarded the younger brother?
The sparrow was ...
 - angry with the younger brother.
 - grateful to the younger brother.
 - scared of the younger brother.
 - feeling generous.

Analysing character feelings and motivation

Read the passage.

Circle the reason the older brother wanted the sparrow to get better quickly.

News of his brother's sudden fortune reached the older brother. When he heard what had happened, he took out a slingshot, shot a sparrow and broke its wing. He took the bird home and nursed it while thinking, "The sooner you are better, the sooner I get my reward."

When the bird was better, it gave the older brother a pumpkin seed. The seed sprouted into a vine, but the vine did not grow along the ground—it grew up into the sky. "I shall climb the vine and collect my reward," said the older brother.

He climbed the vine all the way to the moon. As soon as he stepped onto the moon, the vine disappeared.

Analysing character feelings and motivation

Word choice and punctuation can reveal a lot about a character's feelings and what motivates them to behave in a certain way.

Read the passage.

Buzz, the Computer Man

"If I win the map-a-thon," said Lisa, "I don't want to take Samantha to Wonderland. I want to take Sarah." Sarah is Lisa's best friend.

I couldn't believe that Lisa wouldn't want to take me. She knew how much I wanted to go to Wonderland. I didn't keep it a secret.

"You're the meanest person I know!" I told her. "It would serve you right if someone else won the tickets to Wonderland."

I decided I would do my best to try to win. Then I'd take one of my friends instead of Lisa.

I grabbed her atlas and went to my bedroom to study.

Colour how Samantha planned to get back at Lisa.

Circle the correct answers.

- How did Samantha feel when Lisa said she wanted to take Sarah to Wonderland?

Circle two words that show that Ram was angry.

Put a box around what Ram did after Buzz praised him.

Underline the words that Buzz used to praise Ram.

When Ram saw me, he stopped shouting. I hid behind Buzz, trying to make myself as small as possible.

Ram frowned. He loomed over Buzz. "Do you know the penalty for bringing an outsider into the computer?" he roared.

Buzz nodded. "But I was hoping you would see this as a special case," Buzz said, "and show a little kindness to a poor girl who needs the help of your great, almighty wisdom."

Ram stopped frowning and began to smile a little.

Buzz told Ram about the map-a-thon and the trouble that I'd been having. I needed something to help me remember the names of countries, and cities, and especially of oceans and seas.

5 Why might the narrator have tried to make herself as small as possible?

6 Which words suggest that Ram was angry with Buzz?

7 Carefully explain how Buzz made Ram smile.

Audience and purpose

FICTION

To help identify an author's purpose, work out who the text was written for. The author's choice of words can also reveal what their purpose is — to inform, persuade, instruct or entertain. For example, a text with dialogue might be telling a story.

Read the passage.

Highlight the adjective that shows how Sam felt about keeping a secret from his friend.

The Creaky House Club

At home, Sam looked at the kitchen clock. One hour to go. Part of him was excited but the rest of him was terrified. What if the club members did something really bad to him? Something where they didn't mean to hurt him, but it went wrong?

Sam knew there was no way out of it. He had to show up. He just wished that Tristan was coming too. He felt rotten about keeping it all from his friend. How was he going to tell Tristan if he did get into the Creaky House Club?

"I'll see you later, Dad," Sam called, as he left the house and cycled towards The Creaky House.

In paragraph 1, circle two adjectives that describe how Sam was feeling.

Underline the dialogue in the passage.

Circle the correct answers.

- 1 Which option best describes this text? It is part of ...

a an explanation.	b a story.
c a diary entry.	d a set of instructions.
- 2 Based on your answer to question 1, what is the main purpose of the text?

a to inform	b to persuade	c to warn	d to entertain
-------------	---------------	-----------	----------------
- 3 What can we infer about Sam and Tristan? Sam and Tristan are ...

a at preschool.	b in reception.	c in primary school.	d at university.
-----------------	-----------------	----------------------	------------------
- 4 Who is the most likely audience for this text?

a under 5s	b adults	c 8–12 year-olds	d cyclists
------------	----------	------------------	------------

Circle the pronouns that show there was more than one person in the room.

Colour the word that helps us work out how old the boys were.

Highlight the informal expression Sam uses for made a mistake.

Read the passage.

A voice that sounded familiar said, "Welcome to The Creaky House Club, Sam. As you know, we select our members very carefully. Firstly, we'd like to know why you want to join our club."

Sam had thought they'd ask him this question, but he still didn't have a good answer.

"Well ... I'm a good basketball player and I'd like to be part of the most popular group in school at the moment," said Sam.

"At the moment?" came the reply. "What do you mean 'at the moment'?"

"I've goofed already," Sam thought. But aloud he said, "Well, at the moment and in the future I mean."

5 Who is Sam talking to? _____

6 What does the dialogue suggest about the kind of text this is?

7 What is the main reason authors write these types of text?

8 Who do you think the target audience is for this text? Give a reason/s for your answer.

Jose: Miya? Miya? Are you there? There is a famine and we have no food. We are starving. Help us!

Miya: <to Lord of the Bats> My husband, I love you but I must leave and return to my village. The villagers need me.

Narrator: So Miya and Jose returned to their village, but Miya did not receive a hero's welcome.

Miya's father: Stop right there! We are hungry because of you, Miya. It is your fault we have no corn.

Narrator: Miya was very upset and returned to the Lord of the Bats.

Lord of the Bats: Don't cry, Miya, because you can still help your village. This is what you must do.

Underline a sentence that suggests that the people celebrating Christmas are not on Earth.

Circle the object that Sarah considers to be the most important part of Christmas.

“We’ve all left a lot behind us,” started Sarah, and many faces grew serious. Dr Singh was worried. Was Sarah going to remind them too much of earthly celebrations?

“For me, the most important part of Christmas is the Christmas tree. Every year I’d dream about what it would look like. I couldn’t wait until it was time to start decorating it.” Sarah continued, “Kapil and I have something special that comes from Earth. Something from the past to take us into the future.”

Sarah signalled to Kapil, who tugged a cord. The curtain fell. In front of them was a young apple tree, holding its branches and green leaves high. Seven red apples hung from the branches.
